EIGHT DROWNED
IN SHIP WRECK

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—Eight men were drowned and seven had a narrow escape from death by the foundering Saturday of the Norwegian steamer Gere, six miles from the winter quarter lightship.

The seven men who were saved arrived here this afternoon on the British steamer Arctico, which took them from the light ship. They are Julius Meyer, the captain, and six men. The men told a thrilling story of the shipwreck. They said the Gere which left here Friday with a crew of fifteen and a cargo of coal for Sagua La Grande, Cuba, encountered rough weather after passing out of the Delaware capes.

Off the winter quarter light ship, when only three men were on deck an unusually heavy sea struck the steamer and she keeled over at a dangerous angle. She was repeatedly struck by high seas and finally went over on her side. Nothing could be done to right the vessel and she settled rapidly.

The only boat had been swept from the davits and was floating away, therefore there was nothing for the men to do but jump into the sea.

All managed to find timber or other floating objects from the ship and the stronger swimmers struck out for the drifting boat. The little craft was floating bottom up, but after a trying time it was righted and an attempt was made to clear it of water. Enough was gotten out after a two hour struggle, to put two men in it and with the aid of their hands and a pair of marine glasses, they scooped enough water out to permit others to climb in.

All the time this was going on, the crew was fighting and losing a battle with death. The weakest swimmers and two that could not swim called to
